Ten Most Important Words

<http://www.itrc.ucf.edu/forpd/>

	Word	My ideas about this word
1	Quarrel	There was a serious quarrel between the Montagues and the Capulets; Romeo and Juliet knew there was a problem from the start.
2	Eavesdrop	Listening to other people's conversations, as is done in the beginning, can lead to trouble.
3	Love	Romeo and Juliet were overwhelmed for their love for each other, no matter what their families think.
4	Marriage	Marriage is not to be taken lightly.
5	Nuptial	How romantic would it have been to actually see Romeo and Juliet go through with their nuptial ceremony.
6	Friar	The Friar was the one that began the "poisonous" end for Romeo and Juliet.
7	Potion	The true potion for both of them should have been their love for each other, not a liquid drink.
8	Grief	Grief can make people do crazy things. It does not allow people to think properly sometimes.
9	Complex	The entire issue between Romeo and Juliet is a stressful, complex situation that could have all been avoided.
10	Fate	Believing that everyone/everything in the world has a purpose that is predetermined is fate.
